Lucky find for man, 66

-Diary scoop
attic shocker

Retired gardener Arthur Gubbins got the shock of his life the day he decided to clear out his attic.

For Arthur, 66, found Hitler’s diary.

LUCK

"It was covered in dust, and at first I didn’t realise what it was", Arthur told us. "I couldn’t believe my luck when I opened it. Heaven knows how it got there”.

WAR

The diary contains notes made by Hitler during the war, and is worth several million pounds.

THE

This isn’t the first time Arthur has hit the jackpot with a lucky find. In 1976 his pet labrador Ben dug up a diary belonging to the Egyptian monarch Tutankhamun on wasteland near Arthur’s home in Pulchester.

The extract shown here dates from May 1940.

As you probably know, every day millions of people take famous television programmes like 'The Archers' for granted. But it wasn't very long ago that people were finding it impossible to imagine life as we know it today without the television.

It all began with Alexander Graham Bell's immortal words, "Can you hear me Livingstone?" Television had been born and within days it had become a household object.

But early TV programmes were crude affairs. Indeed the radio as it was then known was similar to the telephone in that it didn't have a picture. Hence the nickname 'Talkies' which referred to the early broadcasts like Kenneth Welles and Charlie Chaplin.

The first TV pictures were a far cry from the colourful ones we see on today's silver screen. At one time all programmes had to be made in black and white, making it difficult for book players to distinguish between different balls.

Television played a major role in the Battle of Britain (starring Michael Caine) when 'Radar' (a kind of army television) enabled submarines to go undetected for long periods at a time.

Z Cars was probably the first programme ever to appear on TV. Since then there have of course been many others, including Dr Who, The News and Blue Peter. But according to viewing figures (people who watch television all the time) the most successful programme ever is The Archers, the longest running breakfast cereal ever. It features Albert Tatlock, Elsie Tanner and co. in the everyday story of Brookside, a fictional town built especially for television by the people who actually live there.

Nowadays modern inventions like the satellite (a kind of flying space television) are appearing in living rooms across the world. The growing popularity of micro-chips and other convenience foods such as Breakfast TV, TV Snacks and the electrically powered 'Cable' TV (which uses complicated wires to obtain a bigger picture), have revolutionised television design.

New, and with the advent of the space age, 'E.T.' and 'Space Invaders' are replacing the older televisions in many homes. However, a useful magazine called 'TV Times' is now available to people interested in televisions. It contains colour pictures and is available from most newsagents priced 35 pence.

ZOO OF SHAME

EXCLUSIVE

Animals made love as children watched

Our reporters have investigated a disturbing scandal behind the scenes at a leading London zoo. We have proof that staff at the zoo in Regents Park have actually encouraged sex between animals.

PENGUINS

On a recent visit to the zoo we watched as penguins made love openly while visitors, some of them young children, passed nearby. And we witnessed giraffes attempting sex as a zoo keeper looked on.

Naked

In the reptile house the temperature was noticeably high, and we saw lizards and snakes romp naked in the grass.

Passion

Nearby a crowd watched as lions explored each others bodies, while in the next cage leopards prepared for a night of passion.

Acts

It seems that such acts of shame are an everyday occurrence at this, the zoo of sin. And the staff there have been actively involved in encouraging sexual relationships between animals.

Key

We can reveal that the zoo's top attraction, Chi Chi the giant panda, is the key figure in an international sex syndicate involving well known zoos in China and the USA.

CLAIMS

Yesterday the zoo head keeper was not prepared to discuss our claims. But when we confronted him with our dossier, including photographs of a young rabbit having sex, we were told to piss off.

Love Is Blind...

Mandy was one of thousands who'd left school with no job to go to...

Suddenly

YOU'D BETTER GO NOW DENNIS, COME ON SON, OUT!

YES MR BAXTER

I hope I get this job at the bank tomorrow. I'll ring you after the interview.

Oh DADDY, you hate him just because he's blind, coloured and unemployed. But I love him and I always will.

It's alright Mandy, I'm going.

But Denny was far from happy...

I couldn't bear the thought of Mandy having to work to support me. I'd feel so useless...

I must stop her getting that job!

That night Denny pays an unseen visit to the house.

I'm sure I'm doing the right thing.

That morning

Oh no! All my clothes have gone!! And I've got my interview in less than an hours time!!!

I'll have to wear this, my brother's football strip.

At the bus stop

I just hope I'm on time.
I DON'T STAND A CHANCE. EVERYONE ELSE IS REALLY SMART

At last Mandy arrives at the bank

WELL, HERE WE ARE

Then the moment arrived

MISS BAXTER? THIS WAY PLEASE

It was a long walk home for Mandy, with a tear in her eye for the boy she loved

WELL, I'VE BLOWN THAT. I GUESS WE'LL NEVER GET MARRIED NOW

I'd better cross the road

Wait a moment. I recognize that voice. Denny!! You're a policeman

Yes, I only applied for the job this morning. They asked me to start right away

Oh Denny, I'm so proud of you

Thirty seconds later

Don't call us, we'll call you

Can I help you?

Yes, and now I can afford to buy you that ring I promised

The End
THAT'S RIGHT! IT'S ME! I BET YOU THOUGHT YOU'D GOT RID OF ME! WELL..... YOU WERE FUCKIN' WRONG!!!

PAUL WHICKER
WHO IS NO LONGER A VICAR, BUT IS DEFINITELY STILL TALL.

FROM TIME TO TIME, YOU MAY FIND YOURSELF.. ER... BETWEEN APPOINTMENTS AS I DID RECENTLY AFTER CLOCKING THE BISHOP ON THE SNOT BOX... I'M NOT SAYING THAT IT WASN'T WORTH IT TO SLAP THE OLD GIT...

BUT IT LEFT ME WITH A PROBLEM... VIS A VIS BEER MONEY. TO THIS END, I HAULED MY ASS DOWN TO THE D-H-S-S TO CLAIM WHAT WAS RIGHTFULLY MINE... 'NOT SO EASY' Y'NIGHT SAY-AN' YOU'D BE RIGHT!

I'M AFRAID YOU'LL HAVE TO WAIT IN THE QUEUE IF YOU WANT TO CLAIM UNEMPLOYMENT BENEFIT.

HOW WOULD YOU LIKE ME TO STICK MY FINGER DOWN MY THROAT AND FETCH UP MY DINNER ALL OVER YOUR NICE COUNTER?

THIS CALLS FOR ACTION!

I'M NOT SAYING THAT IT WASN'T WORTH IT TO SLAP THE OLD GIT...

BUT IT LEFT ME WITH A PROBLEM... VIS A VIS BEER MONEY. TO THIS END, I HAULED MY ASS DOWN TO THE D-H-S-S TO CLAIM WHAT WAS RIGHTFULLY MINE... 'NOT SO EASY' Y'NIGHT SAY-AN' YOU'D BE RIGHT!

WELL, REALLY... IF YOU INSIST ON BEING ABUSIVE I WILL CALL THE SUPERVISOR...

ABUSIVE? YOU AIN'T HEARD NOthin' YET YOU FOUR-EYED PISSED POT!

IN THE SUPERVISOR'S OFFICE...
NOW THEN, WHAT SEEMS TO BE THE TROUBLE?

WELL, SINCE YOU ASK, FAT MAN, I'LL TELL YOU. THE PUBS OPEN IN HALF AN HOUR AND I HAVEN'T GOT A RED CENT WITH WHICH TO OIL MY GIZZARD...

PLUS... I'VE GOT A DATE WITH A RED-HOT DAME, AND I CAN HARDLY EXPECT HER TO DROP HER KEG IF SHE HAS TO PAY FOR HER OWN LIQUOR.

AS YOU CAN SEE, YOU HAVE TO KNOW HOW TO HANDLE THESE FUCKERS, OR THEY'LL HAVE YOU RUNNING AROUND LIKE A BLUE-ARSED FLY...

I FIND THIS VERY HARD TO BELIEVE, BUT YOUR APPLICATION STATES THAT YOU WERE A VICAR, AND AS SUCH WE CAN PAY YOU NO BENEFIT SINCE THE CHURCH IS A CHARITY, AND YOU PAID NO NATIONAL INSURANCE...

PICK THE BONES OUT OF THAT ONE CUNT-BUBBLE!

WAT?! THEN I AM VERY MUCH AFRAID I SHALL HAVE TO KICK YOUR LUNGS OUT!

SAME AS IT EVER WAS, EH READERS?
IN THE POSTOFFICE
DO YOU SELL POSTAGE STAMPS?
OF COURSE!

HOW MANY DO YOU WANT?

I DO NOT NECESSARILY REQUIRE ANY. I MERELY ASKED WHETHER OR NOT YOU SOLD POSTAGE STAMPS.

THEREFORE ONE CAN ASSUME THAT THIS COMIC STRIP IS IN SOME WAY ABOUT ME. HE'S A PAIN IN THE ARSE.

HE'S A FAIN IN THE ARSE.

THAT'S 16 P PLEASE.

YOU ASSUME THAT I WISH TO MAKE A PURCHASE?

I MERELY STATED THAT I REQUIRED A STAMP, A PURCHASE DOES NOT NECESSARILY FOLLOW.

HOWEVER, I DO AT PRESENT REQUIRE ONE FIRST CLASS STAMP.

ARE YOU FINISHED YET, SMART ARSE?

I WOULD LIKE TO PURCHASE THE STAMP. ACCORDINGLY I REMIT THE SUM OF 16 NEWPENCE.

Unusual year

1982 was certainly an unusual year for King of the Occult Peter Spearjig, once known to the world as popular Neville O'Shafe.

FEEL NOWT

Perhaps best known to viewers of Channel 4's 'Tube' as 'The Hard', Spearjig made a total of nine music in 1982. Titles such as 'Enter The Hard' are now hot property on South Shields' pirate video market.

SPEARJIG - Mentor for what?

Through other activities that have ranged from meeting Pan, the God of Famine, to befriending a tree, Spearjig has received justifiably recognition from leading figures within the occult.

Early in the year he recorded an album, 'Texican Revelons', which is soon to be released on Eccentric Records. It has been preceded by a single, 'To Your Laces Tight' (Eccentric ERY 1003) distributed through Pinnacle Records.

By virtue of the 'B' side alone the single looks set to outsell King Crosby's 'White Christmas' several times over. 'You Won't Catch Me On The 303' is thigh slapping obnoxious bus driver music at its very best. Buy it and see.

A.S.-

However the chances of Spearjig ever appearing on Top Of The Pops are slim. He recently left Tyneside with little or no money to spend on clothes, often having to share their make-up with the support band. But now those days are in the past.

BAND LOOK SUPER!

EXCLUSIVE

After two spectacular years of success Duran Duran look set to establish themselves as the best looking band in the history of pop. For as lead singer Simon Le Bon told us, "We're better looking now than the Bay City Rollers".

BLONDE

That may sound like an ambitious claim, but it is one which the band's millions of adoring fans would not dispute. Indeed, blonde haired Le Bon, probably the best looking man in Britain today, has been described by top DJ Peter Powell as "better looking than all of the Osmonds put together".

Their journey to the top has been a hard one. They had to play in small seedy clubs with little or no money to spend on clothes, often having to share their make-up with the support band. But now those days are in the past.

HANDSOME

"If anything we're better looking now than we were twelve months ago", blonde keyboard player Nick Rhodes told us. "It can be quite embarrassing looking back on some of the early photos sessions we did. But we've come a long way since then".

The future looks rosy for fun band The R'n'B Spiltfires for they are one of the most unusual bands in the North East.

Their debut single, 'I Ain't Him' b/w 'Honeymaker' was released on their own unusually named 'Pro K' record label. And on that isn't enough, they even have an unusual name. Paul Goosons. And among their growing army of fans is top radio DJ Alexis Korner, who himself has an unusual name.

"One unusual thing just seems to lead to another", banister Ken Potter told us.

The band have been thrilling audiences with their own fun brand of music all over Britain for the last 2 years, and together with new guitarist Duncan Lister they plan to top the charts this year. "But knowing us, something unusual is just bound to happen" quipped vocalist Mark Butcher.

Can you identify the mystery pop star hiding behind this stack of amplifiers?

If you think you can, write and let us know. The first person to correctly identify our mystery star wins a crisp ten pound note. Turn to page 18 for the answer.
Who are Tops in the Pops?

After the success of BBC Nationwide's Rock And Pop Poll we decided to stage our own Rock And Pop Award to find out exactly who are the most popular band in the North East. With bands as popular as The Toy Dolls, Jazzwaki, Dutch, Kant Kino, The Hostages, The Drifting Robots, Red Performance, The R'n'B Spitfires, The East Side Torpedoes and The Animals to name but a few, and a cheque for £100,000 going to the winner, the atmosphere was electric as the entire North East eagerly awaited the result.

The award was decided on penalty kicks, with everyone taking 5 penalties. And the winners were the very popular nine piece band Arthur 2 Stroke and the Chart Commandos, who scored a maximum possible 45 penalties.

Among the unlucky runners up were The Toy Dolls who didn't miss a single kick, but being a three piece could only manage 15.

Members of the winning band are seen receiving the 'Viz Best Band' award together with a cheque for £100,000 from England star Terry McDermott, himself a keen footballer, together with other Newcastle United stars past and present.

The Animals scored no goals at all. This Allan Price effort sails harmlessly wide. Below: Two Chart Commandos celebrate the winner.

Bag this fab disc!!

Here's your chance to win a copy of the fabulous live LP by Arthur 2 Stroke And The Chart Commandos. Just answer these 3 questions and send your entry to our address on page 3:

1. What was Arthur 2 Stroke's first single?

2. Name the TV detective who stars in Hawaii Five 0.

3. A forward is obstructed outside the penalty area. You whistle, but he continues into the area and is fouled. Do you: a. Award a penalty b. Award an indirect free kick from the edge of the penalty area c. Abandon the match.
The new Viz Top 10

For many years small bands and record labels have been unable to get records into the hit parade because of 'chart hyping' by major record companies who pay huge sums of money in bribes to get their records into the charts. The smaller labels are simply unable to compete with the big spenders, and as a result the charts no longer give a true reflection of record sales.

That's why in the next issue we are going to publish our own totally independent singles chart. The Viz Top Ten will give all bands, no matter how small, a chance to get their records in the chart at prices they can afford.

If you have made a record, and you want to see it in the chart, simply send us a cheque. Five pounds, ten pounds - whatever you can afford. Then you can sit back and watch your single fly into the charts.

Obviously, the more money you send, the higher your record will climb, but as a special introductory offer, the first band to send us ten pounds will go straight in at number one!

Just fill in the form, make your cheques payable to 'Viz Comic', and look out for the first chart in our next issue.
